

THE BRIDGE NOT TO BURN

HOW FAMED ATTORNEY HELEN CIRESE OVERCAME A CLOSED LEGAL COMMUNITY IN 1920S CHICAGO.

In 1920, women were barred from serving on juries. Nonetheless, Helen Cirese envisioned herself as an attorney. She met opposition at every turn.

Dr. Lucchesi tells an inspiring story about the determined attorney and her remarkable career. From shattering barriers to freeing innocent women, Cirese became an undeniable force.

IDEAL FOR: SCHOOLS, LAW FIRMS, PROFESSIONAL GROUPS, WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS, CULTURAL AND LEARNING CLUBS.

